August 15, 2025 — Reinado Cigars unveils the anticipated release of Exclusivo Hawaii as an R. Field Wine Co. exclusive; blended by Antonio Lam and Master Blender Eladio Diaz from Tabacalera Diaz Cabrera.

"This project will be a cigar experience unlike any other, blending tradition, innovation, and a multitude of meticulously aged tobaccos featuring a collaboration crafted by Antonio Lam of Reinado Cigars and Master Blender Eladio Diaz of Tabacalera Diaz Cabrera in the Dominican Republic. As a special feature, each package includes a QR code on the back of the packaging that unlocks an augmented reality video message from Eladio Diaz himself, filmed at the factory, sharing insights into the creation and story behind this exceptional collaboration. We are honored to bring this limited exclusive to R. Field & Wine Co. where I know their community will appreciate the richness of flavors running through this artisanal blend. The Exclusivo Hawaii has creamy, velvety chocolate covered dark cherry complex tasting notes with a Nicaraguan tobacco filler component which is a first for Tabacalera Diaz Cabrera," said Antonio Lam, founder of the Reinado brand of cigars.

Exclusivo Hawaii will be available at R. Field Wine Co. Honolulu, HI.
